 - Late Registration Period: October 13 (12:01am) – October 19 (11:59 pm), 2025
- The 34th Annual USOMC Competition may be restricted with limited participants in each event. If so, USOMC will give preference to the early entries.
- Last date to change repertoire is October 31, 2025, 11:59pm.

ENTRY AGREEMENTS:

- Upon entering the annual United States Open Music Competition, contestants and their families agree to assign USOMC the right to use any photographs, video recordings or interviews of any USOMC event without compensation.
- ALL ENTRY FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE. This rule has been established and is not negotiable.
- USOMC reserves the right to combine or cancel events for any reason.

VIDEO RECORDING OR PHOTOGRAPHY:

- General photography is allowed only at the announcement portions (at the conclusion of each event) and during the award ceremonies (at the Prizewinners' Concerts).
- For the Prizewinners' Concerts, USOMC shall employ professional videography services. All concert videos will be posted on the USOMC website before the summer of 2026, with free download for all contestants.

JUDGING PROCEDURES for 2026:

- Judges may not listen to contestants' pieces in their entirety, but this will not reflect negatively on the contestants.
- All competition results will be immediately announced at the conclusion of each event.
- Judges' comments will be available to all first-place winners via email by the end of each day (to prepare them for the Prizewinners' Concerts). Comments for the rest of the contestants will be sent by the end of March, 2026
- JUDGES' DECISIONS ARE FINAL. Talking with or contacting the judges before, during, or after the competitions is unethical, inappropriate and not allowed. The USOMC board may disqualify any contestant displaying such conduct.

COMPETITION EVENTS OFFERED in 2026:

- There are 75 different events in 2026, 40 piano events alone with "pre-selected music" that are new or have not been used in five years. There are also different piano events with own-choice music – Showcase Piano Solo, (including Special Piano Showcase Solo for contestants with varying disabilities and New for 2026, Showcase Solo for Amateur Pianists- see info on P. 14), Piano Concerto, Piano and Instrumental Duet Duo and Ensemble, Instrumental Solo, Pedagogical events, etc.

ESTABLISHMENT of COMPETITION EVENTS:

- USOMC may divide the events into smaller groups, if there are too many entries for one group.
- If an event has fewer than five entries, the USOMC committee will either cancel or combine with another event and will take into consideration the level differences between the pieces.

CASH PRIZES, MEDALS, and AWARDS:

- ALL medals and prizes will be presented at the Prizewinners' Concerts: February 20 - 21, 2026.
- First-place winners will perform at their designated Prizewinners' Concert(s) and will receive Gold Medals and cash prizes.
- Second place winners will receive Silver Medals; third place winners, Bronze Medals; fourth place winners, Crystal Medals.
- Exceptional performers at the Prizewinners' Concerts will receive Outstanding Gold Medalists Awards.

NEW FOR 2026

1. Contestants are required to bring their own accompanist for the competition and cover the accompanists' fees for both rehearsals and the competition. However, if assistance is needed, you may email USOMC (info@usomc.org) to provide an possible USOMC accompanist list. Since there is a set time limit for each age group, please ensure that the tutti section is cut to fit within the allotted time. Judges will stop the performance, if it exceeds the time limit.

NOTE: Teachers and Parents may not accompany their own students. Violation of this rule will result in immediate disqualification. No refunds will be given.

2. Preliminary Round for the Showcase Piano Solo Categories

Submit a video recording up to 10 minutes in length (15 minutes for Senior and Advanced categories) featuring two contrasting pieces (from two different composers and genres) by November 15, 2025. The repertoire can be different from what contestants perform in the live February 2026 competition in Oakland.

The preliminary jury, consisting of three members, will listen to the recordings and select a group of finalists to perform in the February 2026 competition. You will be notified of the results by January 1, 2026.

Important Notes:

-The video recording must have been recorded within the past year.

-Failure to submit a recording by November 15, 2025, will result in disqualification. No refunds will be issued.

Exception: Contestants who have placed 1st or 2nd place in the past three years (2023-2025) of the USOMC competition in the Showcase Solo or Showcase Concerto Divisions will be automatically accepted into the final round of the competition in February 2026. Please write this in the application form.*

Rules 1 – 2: SHOWCASE EVENTS

Rule 1 – AGE DETERMINATION (For all Showcase events):

- (a) Cut-off date for age accountability is December 31, 2025.
- (b) At time of entry, all SHOWCASE contestants are required to upload “proof of age” (or a copy of their birth certificates).

AGE DETERMINATION TABLE
Born in Year	2019	2018	2017	2016	2015	2014	2013	2012	2011	2010	2009	2008	2007
Age	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18

Rule 2 – ORIGINAL MUSIC Required:

For ALL EVENTS with music of own choice, NOTE: original music or legally purchased online music must be provided for the judges. Without proper music, contestants will be disqualified from competing. These events include:

- (a) Showcase Piano Solo; (b) Showcase Special Piano Solo; (c) Piano Concerto; Complete Concerto (d) Showcase Piano Duet and Duo; (e) Preparatory Instrumental Pedagogy (f) Showcase Instrumental Solo; (g) Showcase Instrumental Duet and (h) Showcase Instrumental Ensemble.

Contestants of the above SHOWCASE EVENTS are required to:

- (a) provide their own music for the adjudicators (minimum 2 copies).
- (b) for all showcase events, the music can be one movement or a complete Sonata, one or more movements from a Suite, or set of pieces from one composer, as long as the music is reasonably within the time limit.
- (c) at the time of entry, contestants must upload a PDF of their complete music scores (or first five pages of each piece).
- (d) number the first measure of each line on all music.
- (e) for all Showcase events, repeats are allowed if played within the time limit.
- (f) ALL music must be performed from memory, with exception of all Piano and Instrumental Showcase Duet, Duo, and Ensemble events which do not require memorization.
- (g) See Rules #1, #2, #8, #9, #10: P.3 – P.5

RULES 3 – 7: OPEN SOLO, OPEN DUET AND TREASURY EVENTS

Rule 3 – For ALL events with preselected music, USOMC will provide the music for the adjudicators.

Rule 4 – MUSIC EDITION:

For piano Categories 1 through 11 (p. 6 – 12), which include Open Solo, Treasury Solo – from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, 20th – 21st Century, and Open Duets, the stated music editions will be used by the judges during the competitions. If a contestant is using a different edition, it is advisable for your benefit to make sure the music is not critically different from the official edition listed in the syllabus.

Rule 5 – BAROQUE ARTICULATION:

For all Baroque repertoire, it is acceptable to add ornaments and articulations in accordance with Baroque performance traditions, even if they are not marked in the score. Judges will take into account the widely recognized performance practices of the Baroque era, including appropriate use of ornamentation, phrasing, dynamics, and articulation as historically used by composers such as Bach, Scarlatti, Handel, and other Baroque composers.

Rule 6 – PRE-SELECTED MUSIC:

For “Open Solo”, “Open Duet” and “Treasury” categories, contestants must play the designated music for these events. Any contestant playing a different piece will be disqualified from winning a prize in that category. You may not use the pre-selected music in any other categories during the 2026 Competition.

THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL UNITED STATES OPEN MUSIC COMPETITION – 2026

Rule 7 – MEMORIZATION, REPEATS & CUTS:

- (a) ALL music must be performed from memory, with the exception of Duet/Duo/Ensemble events.
- (b) Duet/Duo categories do not require memorization. However, if the piece is not memorized during the competition, the contestant will not be able to win the 1st prize. The performance at the Prizewinners' Concert must be memorized to be considered for the Special Outstanding Gold Medalists Award.
- (c) No repeats are allowed on USOMC pre-selected music, unless instructed to do so in the syllabus.
- (d) For longer pieces, follow “Cut” instructions carefully; it is important not to make any mistake with the “Cuts”

Rule 8 - EVENT TIME-LIMITS:

Time Limits in Minutes (specifically designed for: (1) the Competitions; and (2) the Prizewinners' Concerts)

Events	During the Competition (in Minutes)						Performance at the Prizewinners' Concerts
In minutes	Prep.	Elem.	Jr.	Inter.	Sr.	Adv.	Prep.	Elem.	Jr.	Inter.	Sr.	Adv.

Showcase Instrumental Duet*				8	10					5	7
Showcase Instrumental Ensemble*				8	10					5	7
Special Showcase Piano Solo	5						5

(a) Note: There is a difference between “time-limit” for the Competitions and “time-limit” for the Prizewinners' Concerts (ALL First-Place Winners will perform at the Prizewinner's Concerts): if your piece is longer than the allotted time allowed for the Prizewinners' Concerts, you must adjust your music (with cuts, if necessary) to fit WITHIN the time limit. There will be USOMC official time-monitors at all six concerts.

(b) Any First-Place Winner whose performance exceeds the time limit allowed for the Prizewinners' Concerts will be disqualified from winning the Outstanding Gold Medalists' Awards to be given at the end of each Prizewinners' Concert.

(c) SHOWCASE contestants must time all music accurately and clearly mark the time of each piece on the entry form; this is for the benefit of the entire event.

If time permits at the competition, (not the Prizewinners' Concerts), USOMC will allow the contestants of all SHOWCASE events to play music beyond the indicated time limit. If the event is running out of time (especially when contestants have not provided the exact time needed for their pieces), judges may have to cut some pieces as they see fit, which will not reflect negatively on the contestants.

Rule 9 – FOR ALL PRIZEWINNERS:

There are six different Prizewinners' Concerts on Friday and Saturday, February 20 and 21, 2026. All first-place winners will perform at their designated Prizewinners' Concerts and receive cash awards. Additionally, all winners from 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th place, will receive their medals and certificates at the end of their designated Prizewinners' Concerts.

THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL UNITED STATES OPEN MUSIC COMPETITION – 2026

Winners are expected to attend the Prizewinners' Concerts in formal attire. All prizewinners must attend their respective concerts for each event to receive their awards.

No one is permitted to receive a medal for an absentee. If a winner cannot attend the concert(s), they may request the medal(s) to be mailed to them (with a $40 shipping and handling fee, paid in advance, online only).

PRACTICING facilities will be UNAVAILABLE for 2026: Practice/warm-up rooms will be unavailable at the competition site. Official pianos in all Competition Halls, as well as any pianos belonging to the Mormon Church, are off-limits to the competitors/public at all times. Contestants will be disqualified, if found violating this rule.

THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL UNITED STATES OPEN MUSIC COMPETITION – 2026

CATEGORY 11: SHOWCASE PIANO SOLO – This event is for the exceptionally gifted

- There are FIVE Different Age Groups in this Category.
- Contestants must select two (or two sets of) original and contrasting pieces from different musical periods. ANY STANDARD REPERTOIRE will be acceptable, such as one or more movement(s) from a Sonata, a suite or a set of Theme & Variations. No simplified music allowed. Contestants must be prepared to play all of their music (no personal ‘cuts’ are allowed) during the competitions. The judges may stop a performance before it ends or begin a piece from a certain section, neither of which will reflect negatively upon the contestants.
- Notice: all pre-selected music used in 2026 - including Open Solo and Treasury categories cannot be used as a piece for the Showcase Solo Events of 2026.
- Contestants who have won first place at the USOMC in the past are not allowed to enter again using the same repertoire. If they do, they will be disqualified to win a prize.
- Performance must be from memory.
- The contestants must time their pieces accurately and mark them clearly on the Entry form.
- Review the Competition Rules #1 to #2, and #8 to #10 on P.3 – P.5.
- Contestants must upload at registration, a PDF of their complete music scores (or first five (5) pages of each piece).
- Contestants must bring at least 2 copies of their music (one must be purchased) for the judges during the competition and mark the first bar of each line. Without proper music, contestants will be disqualified.
- For all First Place Winners: The adjudicators will choose one selection to play at the Prizewinners' Concerts. Please check carefully for the maximum time allowed for the Prizewinners' Concerts (cuts may be necessary to fit into the time limit).

NEW FOR 2026: PRELIMINARY ROUND FOR SHOWCASE SOLO PIANO DIVISIONS

Submit a video recording up to 10 minutes in length (15 minutes for Senior and Advanced categories) featuring two contrasting pieces (from two different composers and genres) by November 15, 2025. The repertoire can be different from what contestants perform in the live February 2026 competition in Oakland.

The preliminary jury, consisting of three members, will listen to the recordings and select a group of finalists to perform in the February 2026 competition. You will be notified of the results by January 1, 2026.

Important Notes:

-The video recording must have been recorded within the past year.

-Failure to submit a recording by November 15, 2025, will result in disqualification. No refunds will be issued.

Exception: Contestants who have placed 1st or 2nd place in the past three years (2023-2025) of the USOMC competition in the Showcase Solo or Showcase Concerto Divisions will be automatically accepted into the final round of the competition in February 2026. Please write this in the application form.*

LEVEL	AGES	MAXIMUM TIME
		For the Competition *	For the Prizewinners Concert
PREPARATORY	7 and Under	5 minutes	3 minutes
ELEMENTARY	8 – 9	6 minutes	4 minutes
JUNIOR	10 – 11	7 minutes	5 minutes
INTERMEDIATE	12 – 13	9 minutes	6 minutes
SENIOR	14 – 15	13 minutes	7 minutes
ADVANCED	16 and above	13 minutes	7 minutes

If time permits, USOMC will allow the contestants of Showcase Solo to play music beyond the indicated time limit allowed for the actual Competitions. To achieve the best results (A) the time for each piece should be accurately recorded by the contestants at registration, to enable USOMC staffs to correctly calculate the length of the event – giving enough time for each performer; (B) should an event run late, judges may want to cut certain pieces shorter as they see fit, which will not reflect negatively on the contestants.

THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL UNITED STATES OPEN MUSIC COMPETITION – 2026

CATEGORY 12: SHOWCASE PIANO SOLO FOR AMATEUR PIANISTS

NEW for 2026* – AGES 21 and above

This event is open to pianists who pursue music as a hobby and have neither earned a professional degree in music, nor make performing or teaching piano their main source of income.

Contestants may choose music from any standard repertoire and performance from memory is required.

The time limit for the competition is ten (10) minutes and the Prize Winners' Concert is five (5) minutes.

CATEGORY 13: SHOWCASE SPECIAL PIANO SOLO

This event is intended to give musical opportunities to contestants with special physical or intellectual disabilities, which include blindness, and other disabilities, including autism.

All contestants with special needs are welcome to enter this event, without age limit.

They may choose music from any standard repertoire. Performance from memory is required.

The time limit for the competition as well as the Prize Winners' Concert is five (5) minutes.

CATEGORY 14: SHOWCASE PIANO CONCERTO – ONE MOVEMENT

This event is for the exceptionally gifted

- FOUR different Age Groups in this Category. The contestant may choose any one movement from a standard concerto.
- To promote broader repertory knowledge, contestants who have won first place at the USOMC in the past are not allowed to enter again using the same repertoire (which includes the same movement). If they do, they will be disqualified to win a prize, unless used as part of the Complete Concerto in Category 17.
- Performance must be from memory.
- Contestants must upload at registration, a PDF of their complete music scores (or first five (5) pages of each piece).
- Contestants are required to bring their own accompanist for the competition and cover the accompanist's fees for both rehearsals and the competition. Teachers and/or Parents are not allowed to accompany their own students.
- Contestants must time their concerto movement accurately and mark it clearly on the Entry form. Please carefully review the Competition Rules #1 – #2 and #8 – #10: on P.3 to P. 5
- The judges may not hear the entire movement in their entirety. This will not reflect negatively on the contestants.
- Please Note: It is the contestants' responsibility to show up at the competition site on time.
- Contestants must bring at least 2 copies of their music (one must be purchased) for the judges during the competition and mark the first bar of each line. Without proper music, contestants will be disqualified.
- First Place Winners should be prepared to shorten their concerto movements (if necessary) at the Prizewinners Concerts.
