The 35th Annual USOMC:

February 15th-20th, 2027

Greetings from the President

Dear Students, Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

Welcome to the 34th Annual United States Open Music Competition (“USOMC”). It’s wonderful to see returning students and to welcome new participants. This year, we expect more than 2,147 entries, and we’re grateful for the support that makes this week possible.

Besides our established events, we have added a new category for 2026, “Showcase Piano Solo for Amateur Pianists.” We’re happy to welcome five contestants in this first year. In other parts of the competition, participation continues to be very strong. Some of our most popular levels draw 80 to 120 contestants, so we divided them into four or five separate events to give each performer a fair amount of time and to help our adjudicators stay sharp throughout the day.

We are pleased to continue to provide the awards for the Outstanding-Gold-Medalists, funded by the Samuel Tak Lee Scholarship Foundation, with $6,000 to be distributed among the best of the five Prize Winners’ Concerts. We will continue to host a Showcase Adjudicator Concert this year, featuring Dr. Fantee Jones, our Artistic Director, followed by a Masterclass, conducted by Dr. Jones, for the top three Showcase Solo Winners of the 2026 USOMC, and a reception immediately following, for everyone to enjoy, all free of charge. It will begin at 4 pm on Saturday, February 21st, 2026, in the Auditorium. Seatings are first-come-first served.

Thank you to Steinway & Sons, Chrissy Huang, and Heidi Chamberlain for their generous support throughout the week.

For 2026, we are hosting 121 events, (112 piano and 9 instrumental). All events are one round, with results announced immediately. As there were numerous Showcase piano contestants this year, we had to host a preliminary round for the newer entrants in order to be able to accommodate all the contestants in every level.

To our Parents and Teachers, thank you for guiding and encouraging your students. To our Students, we’re proud of your hard work and hope you enjoy the experience.

On behalf of our board, staff, and volunteers, thank you for being part of USOMC. We wish every contestant a great week of music and look forward to seeing you next year.

Sincerely,

Lamae Loo
President, United States Open Music Competition

We have added some pictures from the past USOMC events in this program. They remind us of many precious moments we have enjoyed together. If anyone has some interesting pictures of the competitions, please send them to us. We will try to include them in our next Program Books.

We are indebted to many individuals and corporate representatives who support the United States Open Music Competition with their time, talents, and resources. We are grateful to our patrons and sponsors for their continued support and generosity, and to all the volunteers who have donated their time and efforts to the competition.

The USOMC Board is made up of extremely dedicated music lovers. Our board members labor without remuneration. All money received, whether from entry fees or donations, goes directly to the program.

Acknowledgments

We gratefully acknowledge the following organizations and individuals for their tremendous help in the past as well as in this year's competition. We owe much of our success to them and want to express our sincere gratitude.

The Oakland Inter-Stake Center (Mormon Temple of Oakland) once again graciously accommodates us with the use of its facilities. We are grateful to Amy Taylor for her support of USOMC. We so appreciate being able to hold the USOMC in this beautiful setting of the Oakland hills.*

Steinway & Sons, with special thanks to Chrissy Huang and Heidi Chamberlain for their steadfast support and provision of impeccable Steinway pianos to the United States Open Music Competition for all these years. Their dedication has empowered countless young musicians to deliver their best performances. This commitment has been one of the pivotal factors to our success in allowing contestants to enchant audiences with unparalleled tone qualities, clarity and charm. We look forward to our continuous collaboration in the future.*

We are grateful to Dr. Sean May for his dedicated support and constant encouragement these ten years.*

The Samuel Tak Lee Charitable Foundation for granting an unprecedented monetary donation in memory of Dr. Billy Loo Sr. to perpetually support the operation of USOMC. We are awed by this gesture of love.*

We are especially indebted to Drs. Shantha & Philip Ursell, past President and board members, for investing more than thirty years of their time, to help the USOMC literally in every way possible. They might leave California in the near future and we already miss them sorely. We want to send them all the best wishes and hope we still can see them at this competition.

We are constantly reminded of the sacrifice in terms of time, energy and finance our young Vice President, Angela Lui has shown us these past years - flying in and out from New York, to Emcee for all five of the Prize Winners' Concerts back-to-back. She says she wanted to help, because she was blessed as a youngster participating in the competition herself. What a testimony.

The USOMC Adjudicators (a total of thirty-three this year), enthusiastically support the competition by availing to us their time, expertise, talent, and love of music, which together are phenomenal contributions to the organization.*

Thank you all!
From the USOMC Board of Directors

Adjudicator Biographies

Dr. Umida Avloni

Dr. Umida Avloni, a music educator, piano teacher, and musicologist, immigrated to the United States in 1993 from the former Soviet Union. She received a Doctorate from the Uzbekistan State Institute of Arts and Culture (USSR), where she served as the Vice- President of the Young Composers' Association. She was also the Chair of the Department of Eastern music. In 1998, she opened the Avloni Academy of Music (AAM), a pre-college music school, which grew into a flourishing music center with five locations throughout the East and South Bay Areas, with over 600 students and a faculty of 40 instructors. She served as the Director of AAM for over 20 years. Dr. Avloni has served as adjudicator for numerous international competition, such as the North China International Piano Competition, World Piano Pedagogy Competition, Elite Carnegie Hall Competition, US Open and US International Music Competitions.

Dr. Ilya Blinov

Dr. Ilya Blinov is an accomplished pianist and teacher. He began his teaching career in his native Nizhny Novgorod (Russia) in 1993, and since then he has taught at the University of Michigan, Bowling Green State University, Interlochen Arts Camp, and Susquehanna University. Over the years, Dr. Blinov has worked with students age 5 to 83. He sees teaching as the rewarding process of facilitating change and growth in students and strives to show them a direction, a road, a path to knowledge, and give them a chance to discover their strengths. Dr. Blinov is a versatile solo recitalist, chamber musician, and an accompanist. He has presented recitals in his native Russia as well as in the United States and Western Europe. His performances include an appearance at the Shostakovich Festival in Rome and Venice, Italy, a recital at the Yamaha Center in Paris, France among others. He has also performed live on WGTE Public Radio in Ohio and WDET studio in Detroit, Michigan. Throughout his career, Dr. Blinov has developed a format of a recital-demonstration, a performance devoted to music of a single composer using a PowerPoint presentation and a discussion of the composer's life and compositional style. The audiences have warmly received his performances of Tchaikovsky and Mozart, Shostakovich and Stravinsky, Mussorgsky and Beethoven.

Ms. Amy Brodo

Amy Brodo (cello and gamba) performed for many years in Italy, Israel, and England before moving to the San Francisco Bay Area, with positions including assistant principal cellist of the Orchestra del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino in Italy, and cellist with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra. Recently, he performed at New Mexico State University, the University of New Mexico, Kent State University, Florida State University, University of Alberta in Canada, Stetson University, Pensacola State University, the University of Florida, San Jose State University, the Chicago College of Performing Arts, the Great Music in Scarborough Series in New York, the University of Nevada Las Vegas, University of Nevada Reno, Tulane University in New Orleans, in Anchorage, AK, and dozens more.

Mr. Cionco has recorded solo and chamber music by Daniel Kingman for innova records and his first solo CD, Latin American Music for Solo Piano, on the Centaur Records label has received rave reviews, notably by the American Record Guide. He served on the artist faculty of the Orfeo International Music Festival and Competition in Northern Italy for 15 years and for five years at the Samsø Piano Festival in Denmark. He has also taught at the Sulzbach-Rosenberg International Music Festival in Germany and presently teaches and performs at Music and More Summerfest! in Bosnia. He has given master classes, lectures, recitals and has served as adjudicator in China and Hong Kong and has performed in Japan, Taiwan, Canada, the Czech Republic, and more. In 2012, he released a solo CD of Beethoven's late piano music, and a CD of music by American composer, Sunny Knable — both on the Centaur label. Mr. Cionco was a Teaching Fellow for David Dubal at The Juilliard School for four years and is presently Professor of Piano at California State University, Sacramento where he teaches, performs, and composes.

Dr. Elizabeth Dorman

Praised by Joshua Kosman of the San Francisco Chronicle for her “elegance and verve,” pianist Elizabeth Dorman enjoys performing music both new and old as a soloist and chamber musician. A prizewinner of the 2018 Leipzig International Bach Competition and the 2017 Pro Musicis Father Merlet Award, Elizabeth has been widely recognized as a leading performer for her inquisitive interpretations of Bach’s music on the modern piano. Elizabeth has appeared as soloist with orchestras including the Louisville Orchestra, the Leipzig Mendelssohn Chamber Orchestra, the Santa Rosa Symphony, the California Symphony, the Vallejo Symphony, the San Francisco Symphony Youth Orchestra, the Folsom Lake Symphony, the Stanford Summer Symphony, Symphony Parnassus, as a soloist for interdisciplinary projects at New World Symphony, and she can be heard regularly performing as guest Keyboard at the San Francisco Symphony. She has recorded for Navona and Delos records, including as a soloist with Santa Rosa Symphony. Elizabeth and was awarded a Doctor of Musical Arts from Stony Brook University where she studied with Gilbert Kalish and served as Head Piano Teaching Assistant, and lives in the San Francisco Bay Area where she teaches at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music Pre-College.

Dr. Richard Dowling

Hailed by The New York Times as “an especially impressive fine pianist,” Steinway Artist Richard Dowling appears regularly in solo recitals, music festivals, and as guest soloist in concerto engagements with symphony orchestras. Career highlights include performances in New York at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, Steinway Hall, Merkin Hall, The Rainbow Room at Rockefeller Center, The Metropolitan Club, The Metropolitan Museum, The Liederkrantz Foundation, The Kosciuszko Foundation, The Museum of the City of New York, The New-York Historical Society, The Tenri Cultural Institute, St. Bartholomew’s Church, Trinity Church, The Union Club, The Harmonie Club, Christie’s, 54 Below, Bargemusic, Brooklyn Conservatory, Concordia College, and The 92nd Street Y.

Mr. Dowling has presented solo recitals in the Far East, South America, Australia, Africa, and Europe. He has appeared at numerous music festivals including the Newport Music Festival, Sun Valley Music Festival, Scott Joplin Ragtime Festival, West Coast Ragtime Festival, Texas Music Festival, Northwest Bach Festival, El Paso Chopin Festival, Roswell Jazz Festival, Juneau Jazz & Classics Festival, Sitka Summer Music Festival, La Gesse Foundation Festival (France), Rag’n Boogie

Festival (France), and the San Miguel de Allende Chamber Music Festival (Mexico). The National Federation of Music Clubs of the United States honored him with a special award recognizing his outstanding performances of American music. Works of Chopin, Debussy, Gershwin, Gottschalk, Joplin, Ravel, ragtime, and early jazz figure prominently in his extensive repertoire which also includes more than thirty piano concertos.

On April 1, 2017 Mr. Dowling performed the complete piano works of Scott Joplin in two historic sold-out recitals at Carnegie Hall, exactly 100 years to the day that Joplin died in New York. He is the first pianist in the world to perform the complete cycle of Joplin’s 53 rags, marches, waltzes, and cakewalks in public — nearly four hours of music, all from memory. Mr. Dowling has performed over 100 Joplin recitals across the United States in commemoration of the centennial of Joplin’s death and the sesquicentennial of his birth. His 3 CD set, The Complete Piano Works of Scott Joplin was nominated for a Grammy Award in 2018. The late ragtime pianist Max Morath said, “Richard Dowling’s mastery of the Joplin rags invokes a tenderness that charms us and a technical command that inspires our admiration.”

Richard Dowling has received reviews that praise him as “a master of creating beautiful sounds with impeccable control of colors and textures,” as “a musician with something to say, the skill to say it and the magnetic power to make you want to listen,” and for giving “a superb recital that left the audience craving for more at the end.” He is also a versatile recording artist with over a dozen CDs of classical, chamber, ragtime, jazz, and popular music. In recognition of his dedication to French musical art and his fluency in the French language, Mr. Dowling was inducted as an Officier de Musique of the renowned Company of Musketeers of Armagnac, an historic French honor society. Mr. Dowling resides in New York City. Website: www.parkerartists.com/Richard-Dowling.html

Dr. Natsuki Fukasawa

Steinway Artist Natsuki Fukasawa has performed globally including Australia, Brazil, Mexico, China, Japan, Israel, Switzerland, throughout Scandinavia and the U.S. She is a recipient of the Best Chamber Music Recording of the Year from the Danish Music Awards, and has been featured in Sacramento's CapRadio program Women's History Month. Fukasawa has appeared as a concerto soloist touring in Italy with California Youth Symphony with Maestro Leo Eylar as well as a guest soloist with many orchestras in Northern California and New Jersey. She has collaborated with many fine musicians on chamber music programs and recording projects. One such occasion celebrated the music of Sunny Knable with a concert at Carnegie Weill Recital Hall to mark the release of the album "Song of the Redwood-Tree". She is also one of the artists in the recording of "We Had to Go", which is about the story of Japanese Internment Camps told by Haruko Sakakibara. This past summer, she played in a trio concert which raised over 12,000 dollars to aid Pastor Igor Bilorus in Ukraine to help with children who have lost their fathers.

Fukasawa teaches at both University of the Pacific Conservatory of Music and at UC Davis, and serves on the artist faculty for the Talis Festival and Academy in Sarajevo. She enjoys nurturing young people in her own private studio, where her students' accomplishments include appearances in the NPR show From the Top, winning top prizes in Chopin National Competition, MTAC Young Artist Guild, Philadelphia International Competition, and go on to pursue music in college.

Fukasawa's many teachers include her mother Takako Fukasawa, Mark Richman in Los Angeles, Tim Fredericksen in Denmark and Ferenc Rados in Hungary. She has received degrees from The Juilliard School, University of Maryland and Prague Academy of Music as a Fulbright Scholar.

Fukasawa enjoys the outdoors, tap dancing, reading books, cooking and playing with her two kitties.

Mr. James Gardner

Juilliard-trained conductor, pianist and oboist James Arthur Gardner is a creative force in Bay Area music making. As a leading piano instructor in the Bay Area, many of Gardner's students have gone on to win top prizes in important competitions. In addition to his responsibilities as director of the Pro Arte Symphony Orchestra, Maestro Gardner created a wonderful annual event for the keyboard, Pianomania! This eagerly awaited and unparalleled celebration of the instrument provided an introduction to many of the Bay Area's most talented concert pianists. Gardner's past dedication to young people is also evident in his annual "Kids Play the Darndest Things" program in which music prodigies and international, national and regional competition winners were brought together to perform works by the great classical composers.

Gardner's musical training has been wide ranging. As a conductor, he was a finalist in the National Orchestral Association's Conducting Competition at Carnegie Hall. Subsequently he became conductor of the Detroit Chamber Orchestra and Wind Symphony of Detroit before founding Pro Arte Symphony in 1993. In his early career Gardner performed as an oboist with the Juilliard Orchestra, the Brooklyn Philharmonic and the New York City Ballet Orchestra. He has performed in many of the country's finest concert halls, including Carnegie Hall, Philharmonic Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Boston Symphony Hall, and the Philadelphia Academy of Arts. His early musical training began at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, where he appeared as piano soloist at the age of 11. Soon after, he began to study oboe seriously and won numerous scholarships on his way to The Juilliard School, where he received much of his formal training. His distinguished piano, conducting and oboe instructors include Lilian Bauer Cox, Anthony Newman, Karl Schnabel, Dennis Davies, Jean Morel and William D. Revelli.

Mr. Jack Van Geem

Jack Van Geem retired as Principal Percussionist and Assistant Timpanist with the San Francisco Symphony in 2012, a position he held for 32 years. He has performed and recorded with the symphony as a mallet soloist, solo timpanist, snare drum soloist and featured solo percussionist. Before joining the Symphony in 1981, he performed for five years with the San Francisco Ballet Orchestra. He studied in Germany with Cristoph Caskel on a Hertz Fellowship and holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from California State University Hayward, where he also taught. In addition to his work with the San Francisco Symphony, Van Geem has recorded and performed chamber music, music soundtracks and marimba and xylophone music. He recently finished recording a CD of marimba duets with Nancy Zeltsman and premiered Island Music, a work written especially for them by Michael Tilson Thomas.

Van Geem has taught at San Francisco Conservatory since 1991 and at The Colburn School in Los Angeles from 2006 to 2015. He has also taught at nearly every ZMF event from 2001 – 2020 where he also served as Vice President.

Dr. Dorian Ho

As the winner of the 13th Annual Artist International Competition, Dr. Ho made her New York solo debut at Carnegie Recital Hall. Dorian received a Master of Music degree from The Juilliard School of Music, and a Concert Diploma from the Vienna, Academy of Music and Art. She earned her Ph.D. in piano performance from New York University. Her teachers include Martin Canin, Eugene List and Bruno Seidlhofer. She has performed as soloist with numerous orchestras, including the Fine Arts Orchestra of Taiwan, Moscow Chamber Orchestra, Budapest Chamber Orchestra, State Chamber Orchestra of Kazakhstan, Kiev Symphony Orchestra, and Shanghai Symphony Orchestra in a sold-out concert. She has also performed at Alice Tully Hall of Lincoln Center, Davies Symphony Hall, Herbst Theatre, Atlanta Symphony Hall, and the Sun Yat Sen Memorial Hall in Taiwan. She has recorded Robert Schumann's Piano Concerto with the Bohemian Chamber Philharmonic and the Dvorak Piano Quintet with the Stamic String Quartet of Czech Republic. Dr. Ho is currently a faculty member at the San Francisco Conservatory Music.

Dr. Scott Holden

Scott Holden debuted in Carnegie Hall after winning first prize in the 1996 Leschetizky New York Debut Piano Competition. He has performed in over forty states, throughout Europe and in Asia. He has been broadcast on NPR, NBC, CBC, as well as numerous local networks. His enthusiastic support of contemporary music has led to a variety of premieres, including William Wallace's Second Piano Concerto with Keith Lockhart and the Utah Symphony of which The Salt Lake Tribune wrote, "Mr. Holden secured the stage in a virtuosic performance... We were torn between examining every new note passing by our ears, and Holden's pianistic acrobatics. It was a wonderful dilemma." Recent concerts have brought him across the country ranging from Alaska to New York, as well as in China, Singapore, Vietnam, and Europe.

Holden returned to Carnegie Hall to play a solo recital in 2018, featuring multiple world premieres included on his newest solo CD "the Unknown Galaxy." Fanfare praised the album: "he brings it off with excellence, mastering everything.... It's safe to say that there is no other piano disc quite like this one." His CD, Beyond Vernon Duke, was given the highest five-star rating stating: "Holden exhibits profoundly musical readings with obvious commitment and great attention to detail." Holden has recorded for Parma, Bridge, Tantara and NAXOS Records. Recent concerto appearances include concerti by Beethoven, Gershwin and Tchaikovsky. Holden's students have been top prizewinners in numerous competitions including Gina Bachauer, Emory Young Artists, PianoArts North American Competition, and many others. His students were top prize winners at the MTNA national competitions in 2021, 2023, and 2024 in multiple divisions. They are regularly accepted to the music programs in the country. He travels extensively to adjudicate and give master classes at festivals and pedagogy workshops.

Holden holds degrees from the University of Michigan (BM), The Juilliard School (MM), and The Manhattan School of Music (DMA). He studied for a year at The Liszt Academy in Budapest as a Fulbright Scholar. He is on the piano faculty of Brigham Young University where he directed the piano program for 14 years, and is a faculty member at Summer Performing Arts with Juilliard, where he has taught since 2017.

Dr. Hsiu-Jung (Sherry) Hou

Hsiu-Jung Hou leads a dynamic career as a soloist, chamber musician, and dedicated piano teacher. As a soloist, she has earned accolades in prestigious competitions, such as the National Taiwan Normal University Concerto Competition, the MTNA Michigan Performance Competition, and the Seattle International Competition. Her passion for music extends to participating in renowned festivals, where she has gained invaluable performance experience. Recent highlights include her lecture recital "The Theme of Childhood" at the University of Michigan, a performance of Rachmaninoff's Third Concerto with the Ann Arbor Symphony, and a guest recital at the Seattle International Competition.

An enthusiastic chamber musician, Hsiu-Jung has performed at the International Music Conference in Beijing, the Salzburg International Summer Academy Recital, numerous chamber and duo concerts in Ann Arbor, and collaborative recitals in the Bay Area. She treasures the collaborative spirit of chamber music, finding joy in learning, inspiring, and creating music alongside fellow artists.

As a dedicated music teacher with nearly a decade of experience, Hsiu-Jung (Sherry) Hou fosters a warm, friendly, and professional environment that encourages students to thrive. Her teaching philosophy centers on the belief that every child is unique, with their own special qualities to bring to their musical journey. Hsiu-Jung delights in inspiring her students' imaginations, unlocking their potential, and helping them discover the joy and love inherent in making music. Since 2019, she has been committed to providing professional and enjoyable piano lessons to students in the Bay Area, California.

Dr. Chih-Long Hu

Pianist Chih-Long Hu's performance career was launched after receiving honors including the Taipei National Concert Hall Arising Star, the Chi-Mei Artist Award, and prizes from the Mauro Monopoli International Piano Competition in Italy, the Concours International De Piano D'Escaldes-Engordany in Andorra, the Takamatsu International Piano Competition in Japan, and San Jose International Piano Competition in California.

Hu performs extensively as a concerto soloist, recitalist, and chamber musician. His recent performance highlights include concerto performances of Rachmaninov's Paganini Rhapsody, Beethoven's Emperor Concerto, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, solo and chamber recitals in China, Taiwan, Japan, Singapore, Ireland, France, Canada, and throughout the U.S. Hu's performances have been broadcast in "Performance Today" through NPR stations across the U.S. His CD albums "Formosa Caprices", "Complete Rachmaninov Etudes-Tableaux", and "Goldberg Variations" have received critical acclaim.

Recipient of the UT Chancellor's Excellence in Teaching Award and named "Teacher of the Year" by Tennessee Music Teachers Association, Knoxville Music Teachers Associations, and Appalachian Music Teachers Association, Hu is committed and passionate in teaching. He strives to cultivate and inspire curiosity in meaningful expressions and to help his students discover their individuality through music.

Hu holds a Doctorate of Musical Arts in piano performance from the University of Michigan, a Master's degree from Taipei National University of the Arts, and a Bachelor's degree in civil engineering from National Taiwan University. Hu is a Steinway artist, and currently the Sandra G. Powell Endowed Professor of Piano and the Coordinator of Keyboard Studies at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville.

Ms. Eunhye Grace Hwang

Eunhye Grace Hwang is a pianist, chamber musician, collaborative pianist, and choir conductor, and the Co-founder and Executive Director of Melodique Ensemble, a San Francisco Bay Area-based ensemble of professional performers and composers. She maintains an active performance and collaborative schedule and is also involved as a choir director and collaborative pianist for several community and church choirs.

Hwang's performances have left lasting impressions in the United States. John Forconi, department chair at the Manhattan School of Music, praised her recital: "Pianist Eunhye Grace Hwang presented a most difficult program with ease and great style. Her fine technique served her well throughout, along with her excellent sense of projection and style. What was most impressive throughout this recital is her passionate temperament and personality." She has performed and accompanied numerous concerts and recitals at venues such as Carnegie Hall, Greenfield Hall, and Charles Myers Recital Hall in New York, and has appeared in chamber music master classes led by Robert Mann, Jean Barr, James Dunham, and others.

A committed collaborator and educator, Hwang previously served as a collaborative pianist at the Manhattan School of Music and its Pre-College Division, and was a faculty member at Busan Arts Middle School, Busan Arts High School, and PUNIEL Arts High School. She was a winner and performer at the MSM Chamber Music Festival and the Balsam Chamber Competition, and has been awarded in multiple competitions in Korea, including the grand prize and winners' concert at the Korean Piano Duo Association Competition. She earned a Master of Music (MM) degree and Professional Studies (PS) program certificates in music performance with a scholarship from the Manhattan School of Music, and holds a Bachelor of Music (BM) degree from Ewha Womans University.

Dr. Fantee Jones

Taiwanese-American pianist Fantee Jones, of Roseville, California, gave her first solo recital at the age of seven, and her concerto debut at age ten performing Mozart's Piano Concerto in A Major, K. 488. Most recently, she was the 1st prize winner and awarded the "Best Execution of a Classical Piece" in the Città di San Donà di Piave International Piano Competition and 5th prize winner of the 2022 XII Darmstadt International Chopin Piano Competition in Germany. She has received top prizes in the Gina Bachauer Young Artists, Lagny-sur-Marne, Los Angeles International Piano Competitions and a winner of the PianoTexas International Young Artists Concerto Competition. Upon winning the Piano Texas Concerto Competition, she performed with the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Lio Kuokman.

Miss Jones made her first Carnegie Weill Hall appearance in May 2005 and has also performed at Benaroya Hall and Lied Center of Kansas in the United States, National Recital Hall in Taiwan, Sendai City Cultural Center in Japan, Seoul Arts Center in South Korea, Temppeleaukion Kirkko "Rock Church" in Finland and Verbrugghen Hall in Australia, as well as on Cunard and Princess Cruise Lines.

Fantee began studying with her mother at age three. She received her Bachelor of Music and the Roy M. Rubinstein Prize from Manhattan School of Music, and her Master of Music from The Juilliard School. She was awarded the Elizabeth Parisot Prize along with a Master of Musical Arts from Yale School of Music, under the tutelage of Hung-Kuan Chen. She received her Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the Eastman School of Music in Piano Performance and Literature and a minor in Piano Pedagogy in May 2022, where she studied with Alexander Kobrin and served as a Teaching Assistant to Alexander Kobrin and Vincent Lenti.

Miss Jones is currently on the faculty at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music (Pre-College division) and Legato Music School in San Jose and maintains a private piano studio in the Sacramento area. In addition to her performance and teaching career, she also serves as the Artistic Director of the United States Open Music Competition (USOMC), a non-profit organization that has supported youth musicians in Northern California for over 30 years. Mr. Philip Jung

Philip Jung is an internationally recognized pianist and educator whose artistry bridges performance and pedagogy with a steadfast commitment to musical excellence. A graduate of The Juilliard School (B.M.) and Tel Aviv University (M.M., Magna Cum Laude), he studied under world-renowned pedagogues Prof. Arie Vardi, Prof. Matti Raekallio, and John McCarthy, whose mentorship profoundly shaped his artistic voice.

A four-time recipient of the Chopin Foundation of the United States Scholarship, and First Prize winner of the Tel Aviv University Interschool Competition, Philip has earned distinction for his technical mastery, interpretive depth, and poetic sensitivity. His performances reflect an artistry that fuses intellectual rigor with emotional nuance, qualities that have defined his presence on international stages.

As a soloist and chamber musician, Philip has appeared at prestigious venues including Herbst Theatre and the Wattis Room at Davies Symphony Hall in San Francisco, and has been featured as a distinguished soloist on the Jerusalem Radio Station through Tel Aviv University. His concerto collaborations with the California Youth Symphony and Peninsula Symphony further underscore his expressive range and musical versatility.

Beyond performance, Philip is the Founder and Director of Keytone Academy in Mountain View, California, where he devotes his expertise to cultivating the next generation of musicians. He is developing a forward-thinking curriculum that merges technical precision, artistic expression, and intellectual engagement, uniquely tailored to each student's strengths. His students have garnered top honors in national and international competitions and have performed at esteemed venues including Carnegie Hall.

Ms. Melinda Lee Masur

Lauded for her “impeccable technique and artistic interpretation” [The Columbian], pianist Melinda Lee Masur has performed on all three stages of Carnegie Hall, at London’s Wigmore Hall and Purcell Room, the Berliner Philharmonie, Leipzig’s Gewandhaus, at the Ravinia Festival, Festival Les Muséiques Basel and in Boston’s Symphony Hall.
